

Arabic Language Scholarships
Provided by the Egyptian Ministry of Higher Education

The Egyptian Ministry of Higher Education provides scholarships to study Arabic language at its Arabic Language Center for expatriate students.

Studies for each academic year last for eight consecutive months, starting the third week of September of every year, and ending by the end of May of the following year.

Each student undergoes a level determination test before the start of studies, according to which she/he is placed at one of three levels of study (elementary – intermediate – advanced).

A successful applicant should:

- Be a university student, graduate, or a school student (starting 7th grade).
- Preferably, but not mandatory, have previous knowledge of Arabic.

~~Accepted candidates shall be exempted from tuition fees and shall receive a~~ monthly allowance (pocket money) of 160 Egyptian Pounds. The scholarship does not cover any other expenses (air-tickets, medical insurance, accommodation, etc..., is not within its scope).

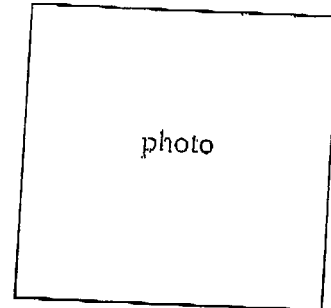

Each applicant must provide the Egyptian Embassy with the following documents:

- The attached application forms, duly filled in.
- Certificate of Education, which has to be legalized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic.
- Birth Certificate, legalized by the Ministry of Foreign affairs of the Czech Republic.
- 6 Photos.
- Copy of Passport.
- Health Certificate, legalized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, that the applicant is in good health, physically, mentally and psychologically, is free of contagious and epidemic diseases (including HIV, hepatitis, tuberculosis, etc..) and suffers no physical disabilities.

Applications and requested documents should be sent no later than the 25th of June 2011 to:

Embassy of Egypt – Pelleova 14 – Prague – Czech Republic

Embassy of the Arab Republic of Egypt
